Flanking Movement of Russians May Lead to General Retirement

Present Operations Look Like Bringing General Brusiloff Across The Zlota Lipa Line He Failed To Break In Onslaught Of July 1—Progress Interrupted In Foothills Of Carpathians—Aerial Activity On British Front Near Belgian Coast And West Of Quent—Ten German Machines Driven Down.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, July 12.—Another step in the outflanking of the Austro-German armies protecting Lemberg on the east has been achieved by the Russians, who have crossed the river Lomnica and have captured Kalusz. Beyond the Lomnica and south of the Dniester, west of Halicz, General Korniloff's advance continues.
When the Russians occupied Kalusz, after forcing a passage of the Lomnica, they had advanced twenty miles northwestward from Stanislau in five days. In the same time the eighth Russian army took Halicz and crossed the Dniester there and began an advance between Stanislau and Bohorodany. A great wedge has been torn in the Austro-German line south of the Dniester and the army headquarters in that region was occupied in the taking of Kalusz.
The taking of Halicz Tuesday was a threat against the Austro-German line northward through Brzesany along the Zlota Lipa and the crossing of the Lomnica and an advance beyond Isabell to the security of the line protecting Lemberg. Should the Russian advance west of Stanislau continue unchecked and should the Russian forces be driven across the Dniester in the region of Halicz, the Zlota-Lipa line, unbroken by the Russian onslaught of July 1, would be turned, making a general retirement inevitable.
On the southern end of the Stanislau front, which is the foothills of the Carpathians, the Russians are not advancing as rapidly as on the northern front. The enemy is taking advantage of the hilly country and has checked momentarily attacks west of Bohorodany.
In France the British have driven off German raiding parties near the Belgian coast and west of Quent, southeast of Arras. The aerial activity on this portion of the front has been more pronounced and ten German airplanes were driven down, six out of control, by British airmen, three of whom failed to return to their base.
Behind the German line near the coast of Flanders British airmen have attacked military objects causing fires and explosions.

British Air Raids

LONDON, July 12.—British naval airplanes last night carried out raids on military objects, near five towns in Flanders, says an official announcement made tonight by the admiralty. Fires and explosions were caused by the tons of bombs dropped by the raiders. The statement reads:
"Bombing raids were carried out last night by naval machines on Varsenare, St. Denis-Western, Ghillelles and Ostend. Railway lines and an electric power station and railway siding at Zarren were hit by gunfire from the air, and bombs were dropped on a train near St. Denis-Western. A fire was caused by bombs dropped near the Ostend electric power station, and a heavy explosion also was caused at the Varsenare railway dump, followed by an intense conflagration which was still burning at half past one. Several bombs were dropped. All the machines returned safely."

Tug Bombed and Sunk

LONDON, July 12.—An announcement issued tonight by the British Admiralty says that "in the course of attacks on enemy positions on the Gallipoli peninsula a naval airplane sank a tug lying off Chahak."

PARIS, July 12.—The official communication issued by the war office tonight reads:
"The day was quiet except in the region of Allies, Pantheon and Moronvillers, where the artillery on both sides was quite active. The enemy fired about a hundred shells on Reims."

Hand to Hand Fighting

"Belgian communication: 'During the night a detachment dispatched in the direction of the road between Dismude and Woumen encountered an enemy party; there ensued a violent hand to hand engagement. The Germans suffered serious losses and left three prisoners in our hands. Today our trenches and roads of communication were shelled, principally in the direction of Dismude. We counter-shelled the enemy batteries. There was a light bombardment in the region of Het Sas.'
"Eastern front, July 12.—British aviators bombed the station at Angista, thirty kilometres east of Seres. There were patrol encounters and cannonading on the Vardar front. A German captain and pilot, manning an enemy machine, captured yesterday, were made prisoner."

U. F. A. AFFIRMS PRINCIPLE CONSCRIPTION OF MEN AND CONSCRIPTION OF WEALTH

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
CALGARY, July 12.—More than a dozen of the United Farmers of Alberta have been in session here for some days and the following announcement was made tonight, in a resolution which will go to the government:
"Resolved, that we, the board of directors of the United Farmers of Alberta, in executive meeting assembled, hereby affirm our belief in the principle of the selective conscription of men to carry on the war, and the conscription of wealth for the same purpose. We also pledge our support to the government in its effort to intelligently and prudently carry into effect the conscription of men for this purpose, but in connection with, and at the same time, as that effort is made, we insist that the government put into effect a systematic, just and equitable scheme of conscription of the wealth of the whole country. It must be understood, however, that this scheme must embrace the conscription of the income wealth of all the men and institutions of the dominion. The rate at which these incomes are assessed must be increased as the 50 comes increase until a certain limitation is reached, after which the remainder of said income is to be conscripted."
"We also insist that in case of lands that have been acquired and held out of productive use, such lands are to be subject to equitable taxation, and in cases where lands are not subject to assessment and collectable taxation, such lands are to be expropriated, with or without, at the discretion of the government, a reasonable remuneration to cover original cost of said lands, and the title thereto to revert to the crown and become part of the public domain."

Goods Will Be Shipped Over Different Route Owing To Sub Danger.

SYDNEY, N. S. W., July 12.—In the federal parliament Premier Hughes announced that the British government had purchased the whole of the new season's wool clip on the same terms as last year, namely, a flat rate of 1s 3d per pound, with an additional 10 per cent for that portion which the British government disposed of.
Premier Hughes also announced that the position of Australia through the submarine activity was a wool clip on the same terms as last year, namely, a flat rate of 1s 3d per pound, with an additional 10 per cent for that portion which the British government disposed of.

STREET CAR MEN ACCEPT COY'S OFFER

Toronto Strike Ended By Concession Of An All Round Advance.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
TORONTO, July 12.—At 15 o'clock this morning, after a lengthy and heated discussion, the striking employees of the Toronto Railway Company, by a vote of 1,034 to 550, decided to accept an offer made by the company late on Thursday of an all-round increase of six cents an hour. This ends the two days' strike of 1,847 street railway employees that caused thousands of people to walk. The service will be resumed at noon today (Friday). The final adjustment of the wage dispute will be placed in the hands of a board of conciliation.
At the mass meeting, opened in the Star theatre at 8 o'clock Thursday night, Provincial Treasurer T. W. McGarry announced that the company, through the Ontario government, tendered to the men an increase of six cents an hour increase, provisionally, pending the settlement of the entire demands, including the wage question, by arbitration.

CHAMBERLAIN QUILTS OFFICE SECY FOR INDIA

First Fruit Of The Mesopotamia Report—Other Developments Are Expected.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
LONDON, July 12.—The announcement of the resignation of J. Austen Chamberlain, secretary of state for India, which is the first fruit of the Mesopotamia commission's report, lent a dramatic touch to the debate on that report in parliament today. It was also announced that Baron Hardinge, former viceroy of India, and now under secretary for foreign affairs, had declined to accept his resignation.
Nothing is known as to whether other resignations are pending, but it is considered quite possible that further developments may occur on the return of the King to the capital. It is thought that Premier Lloyd-George and Mr. Chamberlain's colleagues have done their best to persuade him to withdraw his resignation, but without avail. Great sympathy is felt for Mr. Chamberlain, who is regarded as the victim of the peculiar Indian administrative system.
Mr. Chamberlain made the announcement himself in the house, in a speech defending his position as affected by the commission's report. The report has proved a severe blow to the government, which had to make a further concession to popular resentment.

STRONG SPEAKING AT ORANGE GATHERING IN TORONTO PARK

Great Crowd Takes Part In The Twelfth Anniversary Demonstration.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
TORONTO, July 12.—At a great gathering of Orangemen in the Exhibition Park this afternoon, following their big 12th of July parade this morning, when ten thousand men, women and children gathered to hear the speeches and follow the floats in the affairs of the dominion were carried. One of these referred to the failure of Sir Wilfrid Laurier to accept the proposal with the Conservatives in a national government and also the opposition of French-Canadian members and some English-speaking members of parliament to the government's military service bill. The first resolution stated that this was with the object of returning Sir Wilfrid and his followers to power and that the Orangemen declare their determination, while being willing to share with their French-Canadian fellow subjects equal rights, but no more, never to permit French-Canadian domination in Canadian national affairs.

PEKIN SURROUNDED BY 60,000 TROOPS

To Prevent Escape Of Imperialistic Leader, General Chang Hsun.

LONDON, July 12.—Peking is surrounded by 60,000 Republican troops with 70 heavy guns, says an Exchange Telegraph despatch from Tien Tsin, capital of the province of Shantung, the escape from the capital, of General Chang Hsun, the Imperialistic leader, impossible. Chang's soldiers are reported to be entreaching themselves in the Imperial city. Mediators apparently had been unable to arrange terms between the Republicans and Imperialists up to the time the despatch was filed.

KING OF HEJAZ ACTIVE

LONDON, July 12.—Although little has been heard of him recently, it develops that the "King of the Hejaz," the former grand sheriff of Mecca, has been continuing his activity in Arabia. This Arab leader, who assumed his royal title by virtue of the way he secured over the extensive Hejaz region along the Red Sea, has been in revolt against the Turks since July 1916, and recently has apparently been extending his authority northward.

THREE CLASSES WILL BE CALLED OUT TOGETHER

Government Accedes To Demand Of Members.

PRESS CENSORSHIP UNDER DISCUSSION

Suggested Control By Judge Of Supreme Court.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, July 12.—The house spent the day in further consideration of the details of the military service act in committee and before evening Hon. Arthur Meighen, solicitor general, announced that the government would accede to the demand made by members on both sides last night that the first three classes of men should be called out together. Class No. 1 would therefore include all unmarried men between the ages of 19 and 24 and widowers without children. Class No. 2 would include married men of the same age.
As anticipated there was a spirited discussion of the penalty clauses, which were considered at an evening session of the house. Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Frank Oliver, Hon. Geo. P. Graham and other members of the opposition asserted that they were too drastic in their character. Referring to the clause imposing a minimum fine of $100 for any contravention of the act, Sir Wilfrid Laurier said:
"This is not drastic; it is draconian."
The opposition urged that a minimum fine should be provided for trivial offenses.
Hon. Arthur Meighen after some discussion said that it might be as well to have a smaller fine than $100 for offenses that were not serious. He thereupon agreed that the minimum should be reduced from $100 to $10.

Prevention of Criticism

In connection with the provision for imprisonment for a term of from one to five years in the case of persons who do anything to embarrass the government in the administration of the law, it was argued by opposition members that a man would be liable to punishment for criticizing the minister of justice or the government.
Hon. C. J. Doherty told the house that he had something to do with the framing of this sub-section and that the proposal was a deliberate attempt to deprive the people of Canada of a portion of their liberty. While agreeing entirely with the view that steps should be taken to secure the enforcement and respect for the law, the government was assuming a grave responsibility in limiting the right to free speech and free discussion. He argued that the Dominion censorship had been conducted along such lines as to make one fear that the right of free discussion might be interfered with by this bill.
Minister Declines
The minister of justice, in declining to make provision for a less severe minimum punishment, said that the purpose of the provision was to prevent as well as to punish an offense which should merit condign punishment. Later the clause was passed on to inspire confidence. A paper had been suppressed in Sault Ste. Marie and yet there was a paper published every day in Montreal which carried treasonable utterances which had not been suppressed.
In reply to a question he said he was referring to Le Devoir of Montreal.
George Holman, of Shefford, proposed that control of censorship of the press in connection with the administration of the act should be placed under a judge of the supreme court. The government, he said, should do everything possible to correct the impression that the purpose of this provision was to suppress the opposition press in the event of an election.
Sir Robert Borden assured the house that the government had no such intention. Powers just as great, he said, had been sparingly exercised in Great Britain and elsewhere. The suggestion, however, was one which would be considered.

$100,000 FOR SUB CHASERS

WASHINGTON, July 12.—Secretary Daniels today asked congress for a deficiency appropriation of $100,000, 000 mainly for additional destroyers and submarine chasers and to speed up the work on the general building program.

past not acted and would not in the future unless a case was flagrant.
Mr. Oliver claimed that the application of the censorship had not been such as to inspire confidence. A paper had been suppressed in Sault Ste. Marie and yet there was a paper published every day in Montreal which carried treasonable utterances which had not been suppressed.

WARNING TO COAL MEN BY CONTROLLER

Shall Act In No Uncertain Manner In Cases Of Extortion.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, July 12.—C. A. Magrath, fuel controller, says the greatest concern of the fuel controller at the present time is to get water-borne coal distributed in Canada. At the present moment deliveries are distinctly below those of former years and unless these can be built up it is going to throw a heavy load on the railways later on. Mr. Magrath also announces that he has arranged with Sir Henry Drayton, chief railway commissioner, to undertake to control the coal transportation problem. Through team work of this sort he anticipates that our fuel difficulties will be solved.
Commenting on the cost of fuel to the consumer, Mr. Magrath did not anticipate trouble with the coal agencies in Canada. He expressed confidence that those engaged in that business would do the right thing.
"We are in the midst of a period when it is the duty of every man to play the game, do his duty and be fair to his fellow men," said Mr. Magrath. "In order, however, that there may be no misunderstanding as to my position as fuel controller, I wish to give the most positive notice that if there should be at any time any evidence of extortion I shall act in no uncertain manner."

HUGE PROFITS OF PACKING PLANTS SHOWN

Revelations As To Millions Made Since Spectacular Rise In Prices.

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
OTTAWA, July 12.—Revelations as to the millions made by the packing houses in Canada during the past couple of years, since the spectacular rise in prices, are given in a further report just presented to the minister of labor by W. F. O'Connor, cost of living commissioner.
A profit of five million dollars last year on bacon alone is declared to be the share of the company by Sir Joseph Flavelle, B.C., head of the Imperial Munitions board.
The other big company which share for the most part, the bacon monopoly of Canada, namely, Matthews, Blackwell, Limited, cleaned up about a million and a half.

A record breaking attendance is looked for at the Exhibition today, when the long anticipated automobile races will be started and eight of the most noted racers in the world will pilot their great machines around the track in their contest for fame and fortune. The combination of Friday and the thirteenth day of the month on the calendar has no terrors for these bold buccaners and the crowds which will wend their way to the Fair Grounds this afternoon will see some of the fastest and most hair-raising speed contests that ever thrilled the city of Edmonton. The races are advertised to start at 3:30 o'clock and the prospect is that every able-bodied resident of the city will be there to see them.

Great Parade Proceeds

Previous to the races the big parade of local cars will take place. Competition for the prizes which are offered for the best decorated cars is remarkably keen and at midnight electricity was freely burned last night in many a garage while the finishing touches were being put on by the competitors. It is confidently expected that the beautiful display which attracted so much admiring comment on the occasion of the horse show automobile parade in April, will be surpassed. One thing is certain, the judges who will have to pick the winners will have no easy task. Perhaps they had better visit the show and the place swarmed with their prize ribbons. All persons holding passes for both the gate and the grandstand will receive statistical tickets at the gate. Their own passes will admit them to the grandstand enclosure. JUDGES WITHOUT RESERVATION LAUD PROGRESS EVIDENCED IN CREATING UTILITY HERDS

The entrance of some scores of prize winning beauties on the race track yesterday afternoon for the grand parade was the finale of the work of adjudication in the cattle and heavy horse classes at the exhibition—a work which not only distributed several thousand dollars in awards, but which meant much in the way of impetus to the livestock industry of the district and province.
Sincere words of praise for the standard of the livestock exhibit and for the progress shown in the building up of utility herds was given without reservation by the judges in the various classes. Never has a more representative showing of cattle been seen at the exhibition, and never has the quality of the majority of these classes been so universally high. Thousands of farmers from every nook and corner of central and northern Alberta have been earnest witnesses of the work in the show rings, and it was plainly to be seen that such a deep interest must result in a more widespread and systematic effort to improve the general standard of provincial farm stock. Fancy prices for livestock have made it possible for farmers to bring about these improvements in breeding, and exhibitors at the fair report a strong demand for information, prices and interest in the final championship keener. THIRD DAY SUCCESS AT MEDICINE HAT

(By Morning Bulletin Leased Wire)
MEDICINE HAT, Alta., July 12.—With attendance almost equal to citizens' day, with sport events better than before, and with more moderate weather, the third day of the stampee was eminently successful. Steers and horses had rather the better of riders today, and contestants who had been winners on previous days generally lost out today, making interest in the final championship keener. VALUE OF FAIR IN IMPROVING SHEEP, HOGS

Centre For Dissemination Of Pure Bred Stock Throughout Country.

Thursday was a quiet day in the sheep and swine pens for the judging was completed. The breeders then had time to enjoy the other sights of the fair. Herebefore the fair had been busy grooming their animals and parading their entries before the judges with all the excitement of the keen competition. But the breeders of both sheep and swine have another business at the fair which does much towards the development of these departments of the pure-bred live stock industry. It is the sale of breeding stock to the many visitors from the surrounding country from 200 miles of the city.

The bargaining has begun and the next day or two will see several deals completed which will mean the purchase of the foundation of prize winning herds and flocks at future fairs. The contest for prizes is only the preliminary fraction of the fair for it is the prize winning stock that will sell for the most money.

Individual Success
The following are a few more of the individual successes of the exhibitors in the sheep and swine departments: William Gilbert, of Sunny Brook Farm, Stony Plain, Oxford and Shropshire sheep, Berkshire and Tamworth pigs, about 80 head all told, and won three championships, three reserve championships, a gasoline engine valued at $25, 17 firsts, 3 seconds, 4 thirds, and 4 fourths. Mr. Gilbert is especially delighted with winning the Galloway gasoline engine in a competition of eight pens of medium thick hogs, any breed, pure bred or grade. Mr. Gilbert had three young Berkshire sows as his entry. One of these sows won the special and sweepstakes at Calgary and Red Deer in the same class for single animals.

Poland Chinas
Poland Chinas also made a fine showing in the swine exhibit, there being better quality and more competition than ever before in these classes. The Poland China boar of E. Polshampton of Clover Bar beat the boars which won the championship at Calgary and Red Deer.

S. C. Hagen of Winterburn won here at Edmonton first for winter wheat, first for barley and third for oats. He also won at the Panama-Pacific Exposition a diploma and medal for a grain exhibit.

An example of the money making value of sheep wool was noted in the special exhibit of a fleece of wool clipped from one sheep, a two year old cross bred Suffolk ewe of the herd of W. R. Stewart of Hastings Coulee. The wool sheared from this one sheep weighed 17 lbs. and at the price offered for it totalled over $10. The ewe has at her side a lamb, a second crop which is a yearling clipped 16 lbs. of wool worth $12.

Peter Arkell and Sons of Teeswater, Ont., exhibited a herd of 30 sheep here and won three reserve championships, 5 firsts, 5 seconds, 4 thirds and 4 fourths. This flock goes on to Brandon, Regina and Saskatoon.

FUSE EXPLODES AS BOY EXHIBITS "TOY" TO CHUMS

Hilton Love, Aged 6, Loses Thumb and Finger—Found it in
"Trenches"

While showing a trench fuse to a number of his young friends Thursday morning, Milton Love, the six year old son of Mrs. S. Love, 10217 108th street, had his thumb and index finger blown off and his face injured when the fuse exploded. A sixteen year old girl in the same room was blown off her chair.

The boy was in "The Trenches," at the exhibition on Wednesday and found one of the fuses and carried it home. He took it to a neighbor's house to exhibit it Thursday morning and while handling it the fuse exploded. The boy's mother is employed in domestic work at the exhibition. Dr. Williamson attended the boy, who was later taken to the General Hospital.

DISEASED CATTLE MUST BE BARRED FROM PROVINCE

Alberta Cattle Breeders Move To Safeguard Stock—A Resolution

In order that Alberta may be safeguarded against the danger of becoming a dumping ground for diseased cattle a meeting of the Alberta Cattle Breeders' Association at the Exhibition grounds this morning unanimously adopted a resolution which calls upon the provincial government to enact legislation which will prevent the shipment of cattle into the province that cannot pass a rigid tubercular test.

It appears that British Columbia, alone of all the provinces requires an examination at the border for tuberculosis amongst cattle and the excellent results which have followed the enactment have won approval from the cattle breeders of Alberta.

The following cattle breeders were present at the meeting: Angus MacDonald, of Ray, Alta., president of A. C. B. Assn.; H. Elliott, of Rima, Alta.; W. H. Wallace of Viking; Wm. Robinson, Vermilion; J. G. Clark, Clarksman; Wm. Gilbert of Stony Plain, and Geo. Hunter of Edmonton. President W. R. West and manager W. J. Stark of the Exhibition Association, were also present.

The resolution was as follows: "That in view of the opinion expressed by the Minister of Agriculture for the Dominion of Canada and on account of the province of Alberta, adjoining the province of British Columbia, and for the protection of the cattle breeders of Alberta, we deem it advisable that legislation similar to that enacted by the province of British Columbia with respect to tuberculosis in cattle be enacted by the legislature of the province of Alberta."

W. C. Huston and S. C. Dougherty of the Consort district were visitors in Edmonton during fair week and report crops in that locality as being somewhat above the average, though had rain come earlier in the season the growth would have been much better. Wheat is heading out and will be somewhere about twenty-five bushels to the acre, or an average Oats, especially late sown, good. Barley is also good. Flax has not been much sown and what there is in poor. Garden stuff is late but is coming on, o. k. since the rains.

On Continent

One of the most interesting meetings in the history of the Rotary Club was that held at noon Thursday, when the speaker for the day was Mr. H. V. Shaw, of the Edmonton Cigar Factory, who gave an intensely interesting address on the tobacco industry and particularly the cigar manufacturing and of it. He gave a great deal of information on the origin of the industry, and the marvelous strides it has made, referring to the fact that there is an annual consumption of cigars in America of over 20,000,000, outside of the other forms in which tobacco is used.

Another pleasing feature of the meeting was an address by Lt. Herbert A. French, who recounted some incidents of life at the front. Musical numbers were contributed by the "Gypsy" orchestra from Fantages theatre.

The chairman for the day was J. L. Bond.

Personal

Rev. E. Val Tilton, arrived home from Vancouver last night having left his father-in-law improved. He will supply the pulpit of the Metropolitan Methodist church at both services on Sunday and on Monday night will leave for Toronto to supply the work of Rev. Dr. Chesser for five Sundays.

Ex-Alderman John Warren, of Toronto, was a visitor in Edmonton on Thursday.

TAIT IS WINNER, BY A KNOCKOUT, IN TITLE CONTEST

Alberta Boxer Now Champion
Lightweight of the Dominion

Medicine Hat, July 12.—Canada has a new lightweight champion. Johnny Tait, Alberta's undefeated lightweight yesterday morning won the premier honors when he knocked out Johnnie O'Leary, titleholder, in the tenth round of a ten-round go.

Tait had the advantage in every round but the second, which was a tie. He finished fresh as he started, while O'Leary was about to give up in the tenth Tait rushed O'Leary for five seconds and slewed him with rights and lefts so that he was helpless and Referee Young Maxwell had no alternative but to declare Tait the winner and the champion.

The new champion's brother, Alex. Tait, knocked out Young Ross of Winnipeg, and Billy Burke of Winnipeg knocked out C. Chaffin of Regina in the preliminaries.

QUIMET HAS RUN-AWAY
CHICAGO, July 12.—Donald Edwards, medalist, will play Francis Quimet, former national champion, and Kenneth Edwards will play John G. Anderson, of New York, in the thirty-six hole semi-finals of the western amateur golf championship tomorrow.

Quimet today had a runaway match with Peter Barnett, a youthful Chicagoan, winning 14 up and 13 to play. Donald Edwards eliminated Jack May, Argentine champion, 3 and 2. Kenneth Edwards ousted Jesse Guilford, Massachusetts champion, one up, after a grueling contest in which Guilford set a course record of 71 in the forenoon and gained a lead of four holes. Anderson, coming from behind when Ned Weyer fell off on the last nine, defeated the former western champion

GLENISTER WIFE TO STAND TRIAL FOR USING RIFLE

Echo in Edmonton Court of Trouble in Farming
District

Extending through the evidence given in the charge of attempted murder against Mrs. MacKay, (Laura Matthews, of Glenister, in the police court Thursday morning, was the suggestion of family trouble in that farming district. Mrs. Matthews was remanded for trial at the next court of competent jurisdiction in Edmonton on that charge. The complainant was George Stephen, a 31-year-old neighbor who appeared in court on crutches. Evidence was taken by Mrs. Murphy and Magistrate Barclay, sitting as two Justices of the Peace.

At the conclusion of the evidence Mrs. Matthews stated that she thought she was justified in doing the shooting to save her home and said she would do it again.

Stephen's story was that he was riding along a trail across the Matthews property on his way home when he was shot in the right leg by the accused. While crossing the trail a couple of hours previous on July 3rd, Mrs. Matthews had asked him if her husband had not told him to stay off the property. He replied that the property had been leased, according to his evidence, she or her husband had nothing to do with it. While in a bridge over the Paddle River had been removed, and he was on the far side of the bridge with his horse would do it again.

In cross examining the witness, H. H. Robertson, counsel for the accused, asked if he had made certain statements to the police concerning his wife and other women in the district. Stephen denied these, and alleged that the prisoner had made slanderous statements concerning members of his family.

HOG BREEDERS ASK EDMONTON TO COOPERATE

Demand That Feed Of Garbage
Be Made Unlawful In Province.

To secure the suppression of the feeding of garbage to swine, the operation of the city authorities have been asked by a strong delegation of Swine breeders who interviewed Mayor Henry Bowen yesterday morning. Medical Health Officer Whitelaw at the fair grounds Thursday morning. The Swine breeders since their emergency meeting at the fair grounds, have wired the Dominion Government petitioning them to cancel all licenses for feeding garbage, either by the province of Alberta, or by the city of Edmonton.

The delegation was headed by the presidents and vice-presidents of the swine breeders' associations which cover the whole province and there was a large attendance of the exhibitors and other interested breeders of pure bred and commercial grade swine.

Exhibitors Are Wrathful.
All the swine breeders who spoke were emphatic in their protest against the feeding of garbage to swine. Some exhibitors felt like pulling home rather than take any risk, while others declared emphatically that they would not come again to the fair under the existence of the present system of feeding garbage to hogs in and around the suburbs of the City of Edmonton.

Mayor Henry pointed out the powerlessness of the city to deal adequately with the matter under the existing legislation.

City Will Assist.
Mayor Henry, however, assured the swine breeders that the city would do everything possible to assist in the campaign for the prevention and extermination of hog cholera and the feeding of garbage to swine.

City Solicitor Bowen pointed out that the provincial health act deals with diseases which affect human beings and cannot be made to apply to infectious diseases prevailing among animals.

The Health Officer.
Dr. Whitelaw Medical Health officer of the City of Edmonton stated that the City Health department was not in charge of the scavenging or collecting of garbage, but in his opinion a private pig keeper who licensed to keep pigs could not be depended upon to continuously cook the garbage in the proper manner. That being the case it would be far better to absolutely prohibit the collection and feeding of garbage as food for swine.

The delegation of city officials were unanimous in desiring to obtain such legislation as would enable the city absolutely to control the output of garbage in order to preserve the swine industry of the province on its present high standard of quality and prosperity.

MACHINERY END A PRACTICAL FAIR FEATURE

Appliances On Exhibition Of Use
In All Branches Farm Life.

The exhibition, being primarily and essentially a farmer's show, farm appliances, implements and machinery naturally occupied leading place in the lay-out of the display. In fact, a large amount of public attention, especially from the farming section, was attracted to the exhibit. This applies with peculiar force to the section of the show, as owing to the shortage of man power, due to the war, labor saving devices are now more essential and in great demand. And in fact have become an absolute necessity and are indispensable to even the smallest farmer in the country.

The display of farm implements is consequently much more varied and extensive this year than heretofore. Owing to the increased demand for livestock accommodation, demand for every hall has been devoted to that purpose and the agricultural implements and machinery section has been housed in the open air, where they are carefully inspected and minutely examined by a continuous stream of interested visitors.

There are farm implements and labor saving devices of every conceivable kind from all parts of Canada and the States, including motor engines, plows, harrows and clods, variety, seeding machines, binders, pressers, grain grinders and choppers and many other machines of every kind, cream separators, and installations and water supply systems, farm lighting plant, furnaces, stoves and heaters, washing machines, farm sanitation devices, and many other things, buggies, harness, saddlery, in short, every kind of device that can be used on the farm to conserve labor and render more effective the farmer's efforts to increase the output and improve the quality of his produce.

Such a display as this cannot fail to have a valuable educational effect on the visitors, and no farmer or farmer's wife can see these exhibits without learning a valuable lesson. It is not a lesson that is impossible for any person engaged in the farming industry to visit this important show without forming a mental picture of the use of one or other of these appliances, and how they affect his or her life by conserving labor and securing increased production. It is a lesson that is a real result, that the exhibitors have achieved it would have done work and justified its existence.

Something that raises people out of themselves, shows them new activities, new links of thought and action must have a salutary effect. And so farmers visiting this machinery and implement display have their outlook broadened and return to their homes in a better, more enlightened and more intelligent frame of mind and with a considerable impetus to do their "bit" in the great work of life.

A very interesting exhibit, especially for the women, shows a governor working three machines simultaneously—a churn, a cream separator and a washing machine, and it is pretty safe to conclude that a good farm housewife will have their work considerably lightened after their visit to this exhibit, by the installation of this labor saving device and that while husband John's pocket may be a little lighter he will be happier in the knowledge that he has done something to lighten the labor of his life partner.

An exhibit of very particular interest, and which attracts hundreds of visitors on account of its novelty, as well as its intrinsic merit, is the milk-making machine. This machine is so simple and so easy to operate that any one who is skeptical as to the efficiency of this system, which has now been in operation for a number of years, and is claimed to be the most efficient of the machine-making system a man can milk thirty cows in an hour and a half.

Another interesting exhibit is the device for converting the automobile into a farm tractor, for plowing, harrowing, cutting, etc.

Widow Is Not Next Of Kin To Husband

Winnipeg, July 12.—A widow is not next of kin of her husband. This point was settled yesterday by Chief Justice Mathers in a case involving the interpretation of a will. The will was that of George V. Rille, a merchant of Winnipeg, who died some years ago. By his will he left his estate to his wife, Mrs. Rille, and to the next of kin of his wife. The terms of the legacy were that if the legatee predeceased the testator the legacy was to go to the next of kin of the legatee. Mrs. Rille died, leaving a widow without family and the question under dispute before the courts was whether the widow was the next of kin and entitled to the legacy. Chief Justice Mathers held the widow was not entitled to the legacy.

TRIAL OF MOKE FOR MURDER OF LAMEY BEGINS AT PEACE RIVER BEFORE MR. JUSTICE STUART

Eight Witnesses Called By Crown—Evidence Of Ill-Feeling Between Accused And Deceased—Stated That Moke Said He Would Shoot
Lamey—Hon. A. G. MacKay Appears For Defence; H. H. Parlee
For Crown.

(Special To The Bulletin)
PEACE RIVER, Alta., July 12.—The trial of Donald Moke, who is charged with the murder of Louis Lamey, which is alleged to have occurred about the last of December, opened at Peace River today, in the Empire theatre. Hon. A. G. MacKay, K.C., appearing for the defence and H. H. Parlee, K.C., for the crown. Mr. Justice Stuart, of Calgary, presided.

The crown called eight witnesses, the first being Guy B. Wells, who identified the rifle produced in court and admitted to evidence as formerly belonging to Louis Lamey.

Odlin Oliver, a former trapping partner of Lamey's, identified a watch that Moke had in his possession at that time owned by the deceased.

Duncan McGregor, another trapper, corroborated the story about the watch, saying that he thought about last January he had seen Moke with Lamey's watch.

When cross-examined by Mr. MacKay with reference to the guns in the cabin where Moke and Lamey lived, he said there were two guns, one being useless. About the first of December, he was told that Lamey had thrown his gun down and choked him. He also made him do the heavy end of the work and scolded him continually. McGregor advised him to take the gun, divide them and then then quit him.

Would Shoot Lamey.
Moke also told this witness that he would shoot Lamey in the back. McGregor told him if he did that, he'd hang, sure.

Witness stated that Moke was a boy of a mild disposition and not a fighting character, but that he was green at trapping business. He knew that Moke was only eighteen, while Lamey, he judged, was 35 or 37.

George Weir, McGregor's trapping partner, told briefly that Lamey's trapping line was a couple of miles below theirs; that last October he had first seen Moke and at that time he had helped Lamey to build a cabin in the Buffalo Lake district and that in return Lamey cut hay and helped out a trail. Moke also told this witness that Lamey had bossed him, but Weir said they had always got along all right. On the night of December 31st, he remembered Lamey teaching young Moke how to skin a red fox. Later he met Moke who said that he bought "Frenchy" out, that he had

Having Hard Luck.
William McElroy, who worked in a store in the vicinity of the alleged murder, was also called. He said he had seen Moke several times and that the boy always stated the same thing, that both he and his partner were having hard luck as to trapping. He said Moke always seemed to be afraid of running away, and that he always thought the boy very decent and quiet and had only seen the dead man once.

Sergeant Edward C. Marshall, R.N.W.M.P., stated that on March 2nd, he had placed Moke under arrest, on the same day as he had been arrested by Constable Campbell, who is town and provincial constable, and who was anxious to turn the case over.

Marshall related that Moke gave most of the information voluntarily, but admitted that he had asked a few questions. Marshall told Moke he would have to take it in writing. Moke said: "I want to tell all about it."

James B. Campbell, the last witness to be called before court adjourned, said that he had arrested Moke March 2nd at Dr. Bayfield's about six miles out of Peace River. Moke also made a statement to him, but he said nothing or offered any inducement to the prisoner to make this statement.

HEAVY MOVEMENT OF COAL BY C.N.R.

Notwithstanding Labor Difficulties, Increase Of 189 Per Cent
Over June 1916

Notwithstanding the unfavorable labor conditions which prevailed at the mines last month the coal tonnage moved from points in Alberta by the Canadian Northern has a very substantial increase. The comparative figures are as follows: June, 1917, 49,155 tons; June, 1916, 17,029 tons; increase this year, 32,126 tons, which is equal to 189 per cent.

It is apparent that some consumers are fully seized of the importance of putting in their fall and winter coal requirements as early this season as possible. As consumers who can do so should fill their coal bins between now and September 1st, instead of waiting until the grain crop begins to move. Many consumers in the past have neglected to buy their coal until compelled to do so by weather conditions. This class are known as the "scramblers" and they procrastinate until the last moment and then join in the "grand scramble" for fuel during the fall or winter months, when the mines are working to capacity, as are also the railways in moving the grain crop.

The period of extreme weather conditions, which may be reasonably expected any time after December, is not the time to be ordering coal. It should be in the bins ready to burn. It is said that in the city of Winnipeg many houses have been suffering from the lack of fuel during the past two months and every person in the three prairie provinces should immediately set about putting in their winter's fuel supply.

"HUSH BOATS" BROUGHT MH. BALFOUR TO STATES

London, July 12.—With regard to the mystery that has surrounded the disappearance of the "hush boats," any boat they are playing in the war, the Chronical quotes a correspondent as follows: "It was a hush boat that carried the hush boats to the Atlantic. She is the pride of the navy, the greatest ship of the fleet and she made the trip in something under six days—how, I won't say."

News of the District

CARDIFF

Bulletin Correspondence. A meeting was held on June 26th for the purpose of organizing a baseball club to represent this district. There was no difficulty in getting a team together and subscriptions were handed in most generously, with the result that the boys were able to purchase uniforms and other necessities without delay. The first match took place on July 2nd, and the general opinion was that the team played a first class game and would give a good account of themselves in the near future.

In perfect weather on the 2nd inst., a grand picnic was held by the local Red Cross auxiliary on the Alberta Coal Co.'s recreation ground. Sports were held for the children during the afternoon and nice prizes were given by the members.

Immediately after the sports, the great attraction of the afternoon took place, a baseball game between Riviere Qui Barre and the local team. The game was full of excitement and keenly contested and ended in favor of Riviere Qui Barre.

Boxing exhibitions during the evening caused much merriment, especially when the very small boys tried conclusions.

Tags were sold throughout the day by the Misses Joan and Barbara Shove. They were very energetic and met with great success, accounting for the sum of $28.00.

Mr. Bishop very kindly donated a young Poland China pig to be raffled. The raffie was extremely popular and was the means of swelling the funds very considerably.

As soon as darkness set in, the crowd adjourned to Wasem's hall for dancing, when the usual good time was had. Mr. Wasem again gave free use of his hall and the music, which was excellent, was also furnished free of charge.

The members of the Red Cross wish to thank all those who so kindly made donations in various ways and other ways helped to make the picnic the success it proved to be, particularly they extend their thanks to Mr. Wasem and Mr. McNally for their generosity in supplying goods at the very lowest possible price, thereby enabling the Red Cross to make a good profit on their sales.

After all expenses were paid, the sum of $143.75 remained, which was made up as follows: Ice cream and candy sales, $40; refreshments, $17; sale of tags, $28; raffie tickets, $34, and dance, $24.

Work returned to headquarters during the week by the Cardiff Auxiliary consisted of 5 suits pyjamas, 3 service shirts, 7 packages triangular bandages, 7 packages straight bandages.

FORESTBURG

Bulletin Correspondence. Two more nice rains during the past week followed by clear warm weather has made a wonderful growth of grain. Many farmers claim the crop will be above normal throughout this territory.

The acreage in this district for 1917 is much larger than in 1916 on account of new settlers and the excellent prospects for a very high market during the coming year, has caused most every farmer to increase his acreage to the limit, both of available land and the good supply of labor.

Travelling men who visit this place very frequently claim this to be one of the best little towns for business in the whole province. This speaks well for a town less than two years on the map.

Fifteen carloads of grain were moved out from this station in the past week, which makes the total one hundred and sixty-five to date. This is a good start for such a short time for the first year of existence.

All the places of business and most all the farmers close up and went to Alliance for the great holiday celebration and sports on Dominion Day. There was quite a lot of enthusiasm shown in the various contests, some of which were the fifty yard dash between boys of twelve years and under, and also for the girls of the same age; and more so for the eighty-yard dash between married women for the twelve dollar hat. The three legged race and the fifty yard dash were exciting. The baseball games were good and commanded the attention of the entire crowd, with plenty of cheering and rooting. The first game between Alliance and Gulland ended in a score of 16 to 1 in favor of the home team and was only a starter. The second game was played between Edgewick and Alliance with scores 7 to 6 in favor of the visiting team. Both teams worked hard for the score and the last inning was winner. The third game was between Forestburg and Alliance with scores 7 to 6 in favor of the visiting team. The score of 6 to 4 was called the best game of the three.

These were followed by two live basketball games, the first between Alliance and Gulland, which was very good, but the home team found the visitors somewhat quick on the move and lost out with a score of twenty-four to three. The second game was between Alliance and Gulland, which was also very good, and ended between Strome and the home team. Both teams put up a hard and excellent fight and the home team lost by a score of 6 to 4. A large crowd witnessed the game.

The bucking contest was very interesting and some good horses were on the grounds. Two riders did good work and received great applause from the large crowd. The big day's sport after an abundant supply of red lemonade, popcorn, ice cream and many other delicacies was closed with a dance in the evening. The band and orchestra from Killam furnished the music for the entire day, which was announced an enjoyable one for all present, both old and young. The weather was ideal during the entire day for the sports.

Around the entire circle surrounding the ball grounds where all the sports were held was a solid line-up of automobiles, which is evidence to prove that the farmers are a prosperous set of men, as nearly all visitors came to the big day's sports in automobiles.

Some very good land sales are being made in the district and new comers are looking up some good sites. Land is selling here very low in proportion to its true value in crop growing.

Wheat is heading out nicely and has the very best of color, and oats and barley are also showing above normal. Many farmers from this territory are visiting the great fair at Edmonton during this week. The high bred cattle and horses are the main attraction and the talk of this community, as many farmers are disposing of their common mixed breeds of cattle and going more into breeding pure stock. Some prefer breeding for dairy purposes and others for beef production.

Grain has made a wonderful growth the past week and many fields are showing above normal. While others give promise of the average good crop of last year.

Fifteen carloads were moved out the past week, which is more to follow, which will make our total for the first year almost 200 carloads from our elevators.

Thirty-two head of cattle were shipped out this week for the Edmonton market, which is proof of the profit gained in stock raising in this great valley history, which produces plenty of pleasure all the year through.

Our live little village is preparing for its second annual sports day July 13th. All efforts possible are being made to make it round of the best in the territory of the Battle River District any time this year. Special arrangements are being made for races and contests that will be of great interest to both young and old.

Forty-seven cans of cream were billed out the past week from our station, which shows that the cows are still working and the farmers are cashing in very nice cream checks, which, with the abundant supply of eggs brought in with the cream and sold at our local store make the ladies smile and pass remarks such as "Forestburg is the place to sell your products."

Misery in Back, Headache and Pain in Limbs

Dear Mr. Editor—For more than a year I suffered with misery in the back, dull headache, pain in the limbs was somewhat constipated and slept poorly at night until I was about ready to give up. Seeing an account of the wonderful qualities of "Anuric," prepared by Doctor Pierce, of Buffalo, N.Y., I sent for a box, and before using the whole box I felt a new life was before me. My sleep is refreshing, misery reduced, and life is not the drag it was before. I most cheerfully recommend this remedy to sufferers from "our truly," W. A. ROBERTS.

Note: You've all undoubtedly heard of the famous Dr. Pierce's and his well-known medicines. Well, this prescription is one that has been successfully used for many years by the physicians and specialists of Dr. Pierce's Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Rochester, N.Y., for kidney complaints and diseases arising from disorders of the kidneys and bladder, such as backache, weak back, rheumatism, dropsy, congestion of the kidneys, inflammation of the bladder, scalding urine, and urinary troubles.

Up to this time, "Anuric" has not been on sale to the public, but by the persuasion of many patients and the increased demand for this wonderful healing tablet, Dr. Pierce has finally decided to put it into the drug stores of this country within immediate reach of all sufferers.

I know of one or two leading druggists in town who have managed to procure a supply of "Anuric" for their anxious customers in and around this locality. If not obtainable send one dime by mail to Dr. Pierce for trial package or 50 cents for full treatment.

Editor—Please insert this letter in some conspicuous place in your paper.

Wanted—One hundred thousand farmers on the vacant land in Northern Alberta.

It seems unfortunate that the profiteer cannot be allowed to fall into the hands of the Huns.

The problem of implement dealers used to be to find buyers. Now it is to find implements enough to satisfy the demands of buyers. That marks the whole vast difference between farming as it was and farming as it is today.

As Canada is departing now from the policy of voluntary enlistment for the army, we should also depart from the policy of raising war funds by voluntary subscription. To conscript a man for military service but to leave his family dependent upon voluntary donations to a benefit fund, would be an outrageous injustice upon the people concerned, and a piece of national folly to boot. Compulsory service and voluntary taxation would be an amazing association of contradictory principles. If one man's life is to be conscripted, surely another man's wealth should be conscripted to the extent of his just proportion of the cost of supporting the conscript's family. The Patriotic Fund should be raised by taxation, and that under the authority of the Dominion Government, whose business it is to carry on the war.

The destruction of garbage today should mean the destruction of very little that is fit for food for hogs. If it would mean that, then the contents of the garbage cans prove that we have not risen to their duty in the matter of house-hold economy. Most of the garbage that a pig can be persuaded to eat consists of food that was quite good enough for people to eat if it had been consumed at the right time. If the contents of our garbage cans cannot be destroyed without destroying good food for hogs, then we deserve to have to pay for our wastefulness by having to pay high prices for grain-fed pork. The hog industry of this Province is too valuable to be endangered by feeding pigs on food that people have allowed to "go bad."

An amendment has been proposed to the conscription bill which would exempt agricultural laborers from conscription. The amendment looks more like a vote-catching device than one designed to get recruits for the army. As a means to prevent the consequences of conscription falling upon production it is delusive. The shortage of farm labor in Canada today is not entirely due to the fact that thousands of men have enlisted from the farms. It is also in part due to the fact that thousands of men have enlisted from the cities, and that farm workers have flocked into the cities to take the places of the enlisted men. The net result of the readjustment is that the farms are short of workers and that munition work is being done by men who have abandoned work at which they were skilled to learn work to which they were strangers. That readjustment, unavoidable under the circumstances has neither saved production from being lessened by the withdrawal of farm workers, nor has it made for higher efficiency in the munition plants. We must make up our minds that if another hundred thousand men are to be withdrawn from Canada under present conditions, they will have to come, in the great majority of cases, from industry of some sort, and that whether they are taken from the cities or the country the productive capacity of the nation will suffer in proportion. That is one of the losses of war which cannot be escaped by any sort of manipulation.

Has the policy of leaving the soldier's family to depend upon voluntary donations also broken down?

As a meteorological exhibit, Wednesday afternoon's thunderstorm left nothing further in that line to be desired.

The Russians may now have conscientious scruples about annexing enemy territory, but they show a most praiseworthy willingness to do the fighting on the enemy's ground.

Customs duties for the first three months of the year show an increase of $11,000,000. This is further evidence of the flood of war money that is pouring into Canada, and out of which we ought to be paying a larger share of the war cost than we are paying.

Having let Brusiloff go at the Huns once more, there is hope that the revolutionary authorities may let Grand Duke Nicholas resume his attentions to the Turks. Whether they want Constantinople or not they must surely understand that a blow to Turkey is also a blow to Germany. Besides, there are Turkish troops in Galicia who might have to be recalled if things were made lively in Asia Minor.

As expected, the Railway Commission has allowed the railways and lake boats to increase the freight rates on goods coming from Eastern Canada. The increase is not large, but it marks a reversal of the freight rate question. The struggle hereafter will not be to get rates reduced, but to keep them from being boosted. Having got the thin end of the wedge inserted, the railway companies may be trusted to drive it for all they are worth.

War prosperity, like speculative prosperity, has to be paid for. Canadians are making more money out of the war than they are putting into it; and could finance their whole war effort out of war contracts and war prices. And so much of it as they do not finance that way they will have to earn by the sweat of their brows in the days that are to come. By the conscription of wealth the Government should collect as much as practicable of the profits earned from the war and use the money to meet the cost of the war.

The Patriotic Tax Act, passed at the last session of the Legislature, empowers a municipal council to levy a special tax and devote the proceeds to the Patriotic Fund. Unfortunately, such tax can be levied only on land. In country districts, where everyone is a land-owner, this may work out well enough, but in towns and cities it practically prevents the Act being applied to advantage. To raise Edmonton's contribution to the fund by a tax on real estate only would be open to the same objection as the system of voluntary contribution—some would pay and some would not. A war tax is one tax from which no one should be exempt. The Act should be so amended as to enable the councils of cities, towns and villages to collect the required amounts by poll tax levied upon every resident.

My American Cousins

Because they speak the tongue that's mine,
Rich in the treasure that belongs
To them as well as me, and twine,
Their heart-strings in our English songs,
I know they'd scorn those German threats
And sham regrets.
Because their country's name is scribbled
With Liberty's because her fate,
Like England's own, must be unrolled
In Freedom still, they had to hate
The thought of being down before
A Lord of War.
And now they'll lavish in the strife
The gold they've scorned to love too well,
And fleet to bring the food that's life,
And guns of death, and steel and shell,
Defeat or triumph, stand or fall,
They'll share their all.
They're out for business; now's their day,
They took their time, but finished right.
The heat got slowly comes to stay:
Patient for peace means firm in fight.
And so their country still shall be
Land of the Free.

National Service.

The National Service campaign of the fall of 1916 is now only a memory. But it had important effects while it lasted. It put a number of more or less worthy gentlemen on the pay list of the nation. It gave an excuse for a tour of the prime minister through the west, accompanied by the director of National Service. It was the cause of many thousands of young men engaged in industrial vocations and physically fit for military service to leave Canada for the United States, thereby depriving the country of much needed labor without adding to its military strength; and then because of its success in chasing men out of the country, it was the occasion of another campaign to bring the same men or others back to do the industrial work that was urgently needed. A work that was urgently needed. A work that was urgently needed. A work that was urgently needed.

Farm Hands Wanted.
Western Canada Farmers Require 50,000 American Farm Laborers at Once.
Urgent demand sent out for farm help by the Government of Canada. Good wages. Steady employment. Low railway fares. Pleasant surroundings. Comfortable homes. No compulsory military service. Farm hands from the United States are absolutely guaranteed against conscription. This advertisement is to secure farm help to replace Canadian farmers who have enlisted for the war.
A splendid opportunity for the young man to investigate Western Canada's agricultural offerings, and to do so at no expense.
Only those accustomed to farming need apply.
For particulars as to railway rates and districts where labor is required, or other information regarding Western Canada, apply to C. J. Broughton, 112 W. Adams St., Chicago, Ill. Authorized Canadian Government Agent.

Raise High Priced Wheat on Fertile Canadian Soil.
Canada extends to you a hearty invitation to settle on her FREE Homestead lands of 160 acres each or secure some of the low priced lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta. This year wheat is higher but Canadian and just as cheap, so the opportunity is more attractive than ever. Canada wants you to help feed the world by sowing her fertile soil, land similar to that which during many years has averaged 20 to 45 bushels of wheat to the acre. Think of the money you can make with wheat around $2 a bushel and land so easy to get. Wonderful yields also of oats, barley and flax. Mixed farming in Western Canada is as profitable as industry as grain growing.
To the Government this year is asking farmers to put increased acreage into grain. Military service is not compulsory in Canada, but there is a great demand for farm labor to replace the many young men who have volunteered for service. The climate is healthful and agreeable, railway facilities excellent, good schools and churches, reduced railway rates to Supt. of Immigration, Ottawa, Can., or to O. C. Rutledge, 301 East Genesee St., Syracuse, N. Y.; F. A. Harrison, 210 North Third St., Harrisburg, Pa.

It will be noted that compulsory military service receives prominent attention in the advertisement in the following sentences:
"No compulsory military service."
Farm hands from the United States are absolutely guaranteed against conscription.
"Military service is not compulsory in Canada."

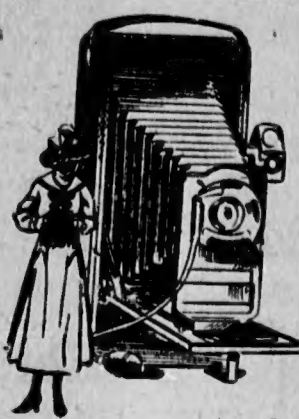

ANSWERS

This department does not pretend to be infallible. It will endeavor, however, to answer questions sent to it by readers of The Bulletin to the best of its ability, reserving the right to ignore all that are trifling or of concern only to the questioner. The Italian Hymn. What is the national hymn of Italy? Reader: The only national hymn of Italy I. Gambiotti's "Marcia Reale Italiana" (Royal Italian March), played at all official occasions. The famed Garibaldi's "Hymn" is a martial strain and the other patriotic songs are sectional.
"Shop Repost." To the Bulletin: Could you give me an explanation of the words "shop repost" in regard to pictures. You describe the process and give an approximate estimate of the value of a signed artist proof. Artist's name: Walter F. Lansing, Maritime subjects.
SUBSCRIBER.

This system is usually called the "wet" or "dye" process of making printing plates for high-grade reproductions of pictures. A prepared plate with a gelatin film which is mixed with ingredients which respond to the action of light, causing the gelatin to swell, makes a plate from which about one hundred reproductions can be printed. We cannot tell you the value of the proofs you mention.
How to Dye Well. To the Bulletin: Can you give me a good method for making goods colors permanent? S. C.
To set colors in goods mix a tablespoonful of oxgall in each gallon of cold water and leave articles in this for two hours, or make a strong brine of fine salt and cold water and soak the colored goods in it before washing quickly and drying it—always with the wrong side out—in the shade. Colored things fade more in the sun than in the tub. Set your colors before they go into the laundry, and keep white and colored things as far separate as the limits of your laundry will allow.

A divorce obtained in the United States would be of no use to you unless obtained in a state in which you had made your home, that is to say, you cannot go from Canada to the United States with the intention of obtaining a divorce and directly you have got the divorce go back to Canada and re-marry. If you do you will be guilty of bigamy. If you go to the States with the intention of staying there permanently you can then consult a lawyer and find out how much it would cost to get a divorce and how long it would take.

Current Comment

Moves in a Game.
From the Sydney, N.S., Record:
In a recent issue of L'Evenment, the foremost French-Canadian newspaper supporting the Ottawa government, emphasis is laid upon the point made by Hon. Arthur Meighen in the House of Commons that the application of the proposed conscription law would be less felt in Quebec than in any other province. "Bravo, Mr. Meighen," the paper exclaims, and goes on to cite reasons supporting the argument made by the solicitor-general.

About the same time that L'Evenment's article appeared Henri Bourassa, the Nationalist chieftain, discussed the conscription question at a meeting in Montreal. Among the points which he sought to make was that were the Borden government defeated and the Liberals returned to power a conscription law of wider application than is now proposed by Sir Robert Borden would be placed on the statute books. Mr. Bourassa found ground for this assertion in the fact that Hon. Frank Oliver, who seconded the Laurier proposition that a referendum be taken, had declared himself an out-and-out conscriptionist and unrebuked by his leader had argued that the Borden bill would not meet the needs of the situation.

It is the old game again. Mr. Meighen and L'Evenment assure the people of Quebec that they will be better treated than the people of other provinces if the Borden measure becomes law. Mr. Bourassa assures the people of Quebec that the Liberals would enact a more drastic law than the present ministry if opportunity offered; in English-speaking provinces the government endeavors to make the people believe that the Borden bill is intended to compel Quebec to do its duty and endeavors also to cast doubts upon the oft-proven patriotism of Sir Wilfrid Laurier.

CHALLENGE AND REPLY.

The Orange Sentinel, published in Toronto, in its issue of June 16th, has a two-column article under the heading "Peril of Civil War in the West in Canada." The following is the concluding paragraph of the article:

"Let us have conscription, anyhow, and have civil war with it if necessary," has been the argument of the extremists. "We have got to have war sometime to teach Quebec that Canada is an English-Speaking Protestant country, not to be dominated by a single priest-ridden province. And we may as well have it now when we are armed for the fighting in Europe. We can let our loyal troops of Ontario and the Western provinces stop in Quebec on their way to Europe long enough to practice on the French-Canadians as a part of their training for handling the Germans." During the debate on the conscription bill in the House of Commons on June 21st, L. J. Gauthier, M.P. for St. Hyacinthe, Quebec, concluded his speech as follows:

"Before resuming my seat I shall be very frank with the House. I want to make a few remarks in the name of my people. This is one of the most solemn hours of my life. It may be the last opportunity I shall have of addressing the House of Commons and my country. I say to the Government: If you press this measure through, my people, declaring that this Government has no mandate, will use the very Bill itself to fight the matter out. We acknowledge that in this fight there will be pain and sorrow. We may have to go to the direct consequences. My people are willing to go to the limit if you impose upon them such a piece of legislation; I believe they are right, and I will do as they intend to do."

To-day's Program at the Exhibition FRIDAY, JULY 13TH

Today (Friday) will see the start of the automobile racing at the Edmonton Fair. These will easily be the most interesting and exciting track events of the week. A number of the most daring racers on the continent will compete and the races will be "for blood." No amateurs will be allowed to take part and the men behind the wheel will all be drivers who know the racing game from start to finish. There is no possible danger of the sport being marred by accidents due to lack of skill and experience. In the free-for-all the result will count in the national championships.

Previous to the beginning of the automobile races the automobile parade in which upwards of 100 decorated cars are expected to take part will finish up at the grounds and the winners will be adjudicated. This will be at 2:00 p.m. The races are scheduled to start at 2:00 p.m.

"Get Away Day" Brings Usual Big Bunch of Long Shot Winners; Some Nasty Raps for Favorites

Last Day For Horse Races At Fair Brings Big Bill Including Races Left Over From Previous Afternoon—Number Of Surprises Are Picked Off During The Afternoon.

"Get-away day" is usually marked by the big percentage of long shot winners, and yesterday at the exhibition races was no exception to the custom, which is as old as the modern racetrack. While the favorites in a number of races had things to themselves there were several notable exceptions, and as a result some lucky "long-shotters" made good money on their selections.

There was a big day's program, including three heats in harness events carried over from the previous day and eight events on the regular card. The program was rushed through, however, and the entire card was well cleaned before 6 o'clock.

The first complaints of the week arose yesterday with reference to the pari-mutuels, and there was considerable objection made when all bets were called off in one harness race because of mistakes in issuing paste-boards from the machines. In this race, the final heat of the 2:15-2:10, the winner of the first place heat, Rose Directum, had been disallowed owing to a wheel of his sulky coming off at the three-eighths post. The driver managed to come down to the ground and reached the stable with both himself and horse uninjured.

In the 2:25 pace, 2:20 trot, carried over from Wednesday, Calgary Earl went to the start as favorite, but got only fifth position. T. R. McGregor, with four fourths in the earlier heats, coming first and paying $22.50 and $23.50 respectively for straight and place.

The 2:16 trot was a three-heat procession, with Copious never seriously challenged for first place heat, the others maintaining the same position in each heat.

Dick Mayburn captured the first two heats of the free-for-all over the favorite, The Black Bass, who got the third.

There was a surfeit of running races, and in these the favorites were more consistent winners. Basso Boy, with most of the money behind him, took the six and one-half furlongs. Gerds and Merry Marquis were neck and neck for second. The judges said Gerds, and Gerds it was.

In the mile run the Ferguson entries, Marcus and Tristie, went up against the Emmert entries, Bonnies Buck and Ada. Tristie won, with Marcus second, as the majority had expected.

Brenner's Ben Lomond carried the money in the five-eighths mile, but May Showers proved a winner, paying $12.50 to her backers.

Yowell had the four furlongs to himself, as was generally expected. Northern Light was bet heavily in the five furlongs, but was an also ran. Lilly Ferguson taking first and paying $21.20 for a straight ticket.

The final race of the day, another five furlongs, was won by Santa Caul, with Go To Bed Son in second position.

The track was heavy after the rain and slow time was made, especially in the early afternoon.

NEW YORK, July 12.—A ten-round match between Benny Leonard, world's lightweight champion, and Frankie Burns of Los Angeles, which was to have been staged at Arverne, N. Y. tonight, was prohibited by the police, who claimed that the hall in which the bout was to be fought was unsafe. During a thunderstorm part of the ceiling fell in and there was a rush for the exits. Several persons were slightly hurt. The match was postponed indefinitely.

CHANEY BEATS DUNDEE
PHILADELPHIA, July 12.—George Chaney of Baltimore had a shade the better of Johnny Dundee, the New York lightweight, according to the popular verdict, in their six-round open air bout at Shibe park tonight. The fight was fast throughout, with Chaney having most of the leading.

Two of the six rounds were fought in a drizzling rain. Both men weighed under 135 pounds.

Conditions Good
Conditions of the past two days have favored the auto and made things harder for the horse races. The rain of Wednesday laid the dust and put the track into rapid-break-ing condition for the automobiles, but it slowed the time of the running and harness races. Unless it poured Wednesday it would have been necessary for the officials of the auto races to spend last night putting water on the course to whip it into the right style. The rain saved plenty of work and today some new records, probably world's marks, should be set on the oval.

The races will start at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon, and preceding there will be an automobile parade, in which over 100 decorated machines will take part. The parade will start from the down-town section at 1:30 o'clock and is due to reach the fair grounds at 2 o'clock. Seven events are listed on the afternoon card. The main race is the free-for-all, and two heats will be run this afternoon, the final being held Saturday. The race is worth $500 to the winning car, $300 to the machine finished runner and $100 to the car in third place. In addition two class races, a novelty race, world's record time trials and an Australian pursuit race are slated.

The officials of the races are as follows:
Referee—B. F. Blackburn.
Judges—James M. Armstrong, E. C. May, A. W. Challand and Frank McPherson.

Timers—Mathew Eadie, F. G. Mc Dermott and M. J. Hutchinson.
Starter—J. Alex Sloan of Chicago.

Sporting Facts and Fancies

Pat Moran has finally got his pitching staff in shape and has his campaign, as far as they are concerned, mapped out for the season. He has planned to work Lavender, Rixey, Alexander, Mayer and Oeschger in rotation.

Now there is talk of Rabbit Maranville joining the colors and while that is the right and patriotic thing to do, it certainly will be a blow to the faint hopes of the Boston Braves. Gowdy's enlistment has already crippled them and if Maranville goes they might just as well kiss their pennant hopes good bye.

The greatest weakness of George Stallings' Boston Braves is their lack of hitters. There isn't a totem in either of the major leagues which hasn't a better aggregation of swatters. Stallings' eye for quality in a player seems to have failed him. He had better get a pair of field glasses and look around if he hopes to make a showing this year.

There is an interesting little argument going on behind the scenes in the National League. Some time ago Manager Mitchell of the Cubs is said to have told a story concerning the Phillies. According to this story the latter team, when on its home grounds, is employing signal tipping methods. Some quote Mitchell as saying that Chief Bender, behind a partition in centre field, has been spotting the catcher's signals with the aid of field glasses and has been tipping off the Philadelphia batters by moving a letter or number in the fence. A great many people regard the yarn as just loose talk but there are others who want the matter investigated.

Babe Ruth, since he has come into the game again after his short suspension, is a little meeker than he used to be. There are those who think that Babe should have suffered a longer suspension than one week, besides his $100 fine, for his attack on Umpire Owens. However, one hundred hours is one hundred hours and Ruth will think twice before he tries to make a prize ring out of a baseball diamond next time.

Today in Pugilistic Annals
1889—James J. Corbett, then at the beginning of his pugilistic career, defeated Joe Chynoweth, in four rounds at San Francisco. Corbett and Chynoweth met three times that year, the police stopping one bout, while in the third Corbett won by a knockout in the 2nd round.

1895—Frank Erne knocked out Joe Craig in three rounds at Jersey City, N. J.

1904—Stanley Ketchel knocked out Kid Leroy in one round at Butte, Mont.

1906—Stanley Ketchel knocked out Bob Sennato in 17 rounds at Miles City, Mont. Ketchel weighed 142 pounds and Sennato 175 pounds.

1910—Willie Lewis and Harry Mansfield fought a ten-round, no-decision bout at New York.

1911—Johnny Kilbane won the decision over Patsy Kline in 20 rounds at Los Angeles.

Business Chances

THIS IS A CHANCE FOR SMALL OR large S. west 4th meridian. This tract of land is exceptionally well located on the C.P.R. Winnipeg-Edmonton line, through a portion of the property, with the village of Rossmore occupying 40 acres in the north half of section 9, and a schoolhouse and a number of small houses formerly occupied by miners, who operated the Battle River Collieries, a splendid coal field. It is twelve miles east of Camrose, and about four miles west of Otonabee. The whole four sections are so even, level and all alike that one description will fit them all. The surface is of a park, with holes, stumps, hills, ravines or rough land of any kind, the greater part of which has been broken with a steam plow. There are just enough poplar and willow bluffs for shelter for stock both winter and summer. At a depth from one hundred to one hundred and seventy-five feet flowing water can be secured upon section 9, and there are reasons to believe that artesian wells of beautifully pure, soft water can be obtained on all the sections. Large tracts situated as this is, within easy reach of four market towns, with three transcontinental railways, are becoming a scarce commodity. A location for mixed farming on a large scale. Price is $25.00 per acre. Terms one-third cash; balance to arrange.

Adventures of Uncle Wiggily

By Howard R. Gault

Uncle Wiggily and the Swing

Copyright, 1917, by McClure Newspaper Syndicate.

"Oh, Uncle Wiggily, you will make it for us, won't you?"

"And one that will go away up high, please!"

Sammie and Susie Little, the two rabbit children, came running out to the hollow stump bungalow where Uncle Wiggily Longears, the rabbit gentleman, lived with Nurse Jane Fuzzy Wuzzy, the muskrat lady housekeeper.

"Now, don't you two rabbit bunnies come bothering Uncle Wiggily," spoke Nurse Jane, though she said it in a very nice way, and handed Sammie and Susie each a sugar carrot cookie as she said it. "He has no time to do things for you. Hop along!"

"Wait! Wait!" cried Uncle Wiggily himself, in his most jolly voice. "What is it you want, Sammie and Susie?"

"Oh, we want you to put us up a swing," they answered. "We have no school now, and we can swing all day long. Please, Uncle Wiggily, won't you?"

"Well, I guess I can hardly say no when you ask me that way," answered the bunny, and Susie cried:

"Oh, if you do I'll give you a Scotch kiss!"

"I like them!" said Uncle Wiggily, so Susie kissed him Scotch fashion, which she did by taking hold of his pink, twinkling nose in one paw, and his long ear in the other and kissing him right between them.

"Now I must surely make a swing," laughed the bunny uncle.

So out he went to the woods with Sammie and Susie, and, being a wise old rabbit gentleman, it did not take Uncle Wiggily long to find a nice tree with a big branch on which a swing could be put.

"But what will we use for ropes?" asked Sammie, for he saw that Uncle Wiggily did not have any.

"I know!" cried Susie, clapping her paws.

"Oh, you do not!" said Sammie.

"Yes, I do! You can use a wild grape vine, can't you, Uncle Wiggily, same as I use for a jumping rope?"

"Yes, a wild grape vine would make the very finest kind of a swing rope in the woods," said the bunny uncle, "come, you bunnies must be useful, as well as ornamental, so get busy, with your strong teeth, and help me gnaw off pieces of the vine for ropes."

Uncle Wiggily gnawed some himself, and, with those which Sammie and Susie bit off, soon there were plenty of the grape-vine rope. The bunny uncle threw two ends over the tree branch, tied slip-knots in them, pulled on them hard so that the knots slid up toward the branch, and there was a nice swing as heart could wish.

"All it needs is a board to sit on," said Susie.

"And I'll make that for you!" cried Tootle Flattail, the beaver boy, who had teeth made on purpose for gnawing. So from a poplar tree he gnawed out a swing board, and soon Sammie and Susie were waving back and forth in the grape-vine swing under the tree, giving Tootle a turn now and then for having made the board for them.

"Don't you want to swing, Uncle Wiggily?" asked Sammie.

"No, I guess I'm too old," said the bunny. "I might get dizzy and fall out. Then my pink nose wouldn't twinkle any more," and he laughed as though that would be the most jolly thing in the world.

But Sammie and Susie and Tootle had fun in the swing. So did Johnnie and Billie Bushytail, the squirrels, and Jackie and Peetle Boy, the puffy dog boys as well as Jillie and Jillie Longtail, the mice children.

Then when it became too dark for the little animal children to stay in the woods any longer, they went home.

But the grape-vine swing was left up under the tree, and that evening, when Uncle Wiggily had finished reading the paper, and it was nearly time to go to bed in his hollow stump bungalow, he said to Nurse Jane:

"I think I'll take a little walk in the woods before going to bed. Then I'll sleep better."

"All right," answered the muskrat lady housekeeper. "But be careful, nothing catches you; it is very dark."

"I'll be careful," laughed the bunny, as he went out along the path in front of his hollow stump. He had not gone very far before he came to the swing. It was swaying to and fro as the wind blew it in the darkness.

"Ha! Now is my chance!" said Uncle Wiggily. "I can swing when no one can see whether I fall out or not. I'll just try a little!"

Then he hopped up on the swing board and began to "pump" to make himself go to and fro. Faster and faster swung the bunny uncle, and he was having lots of fun, and not feeling dizzy at all, when, all of a sudden, a voice cried:

"That'll be about all. You can get down now!"

"Who says so?" asked Uncle Wiggily.

"I do!" snapped the voice.

"And who are you?" asked brave Uncle Wiggily, still swinging away harder than ever. "Who are you?"

"I am the skillery-skillery alligator," was the answer, "and there are no two fat twins, who look so much alike that I can't tell Tweedledum from Tweedledee, to save you now. Here I come to get you!"

"But that the hump-tailed chap (for he it was) made a jump from where he was hiding in the dark behind the bushes, trying to pull Uncle Wiggily from the swing.

Did the alligator get the bunny rabbit?

He did not.

Uncle Wiggily suddenly gave an extra long strong and big swing, and, holding his hind paws straight out in front of him, he hunked into that alligator, swing board—paws, twinkling nose, tail silk hat, rheumatism crutch and all—and the 'gator was sent spinning head over tail in a double somersault and pepperpout, and when he picked himself up Uncle Wiggily had jumped from the swing and run safely in his bungalow, so he wasn't caught after all.

"That's a good thing I made that swing," said the bunny. And if the ice box doesn't shiver so hard that it shakes all the raisins out of the rice pudding, I'll tell you next about Uncle Wiggily playing croquet.

Today's Anniversaries

A most important event in the history of the Christian church took place on July 13, in the year 325 when there was held in Bythnia the first oecumenical council, that is a council of the whole habitable earth so far as it was then known. On that day 318 fathers of the church subscribed to ordinances regulating the festival of Easter and established the Godhead, in opposition to the dogmas of Arius.

On the 13th of July, 1668, Mary, Queen of Scots, was committed to the castle of Bolton, a prisoner by Queen Elizabeth of England.

One of the most learned men of the seventeenth century was Caspar Barthelemy, a Swedish physician and divine, who died on this date in 1629. He is said to have learned to read perfectly in fourteen days at the age of 3.

There was a great fish catching day along the banks of the Thames on July 13, 1750. It is said that the excessive heat of the day caused the fish in the Thames to assemble in shoals under the bank, where they were readily caught. The historian fails to mention whether or not this is one of those famous "fish stories," but it is a good story.

Jean Paul Marat, a leader of the French revolution, was assassinated on July 13, 1793. He was a humble physician in Paris, who became an anarchist and became the most insatiable advocate of human slaughter of all the blood thirsty mob leaders of the French revolution.

He was executed by guillotine, and his body was publicly demanded 270,000 francs.

Today We Celebrate

Anniversary of the Death of Richard Cromwell

Richard Cromwell, eldest son of Oliver, and who, for a short time after his father's death, was the acknowledged Protector of England, died on July 13, 1712. He had lived for fifty-three years in peaceful obscurity after giving up the government and retiring to his estate in 1660.

Richard was frequently being offered the crown without making any great effort to retain his power. On the other hand he has been credited with great good sense because of this fact, for the spirit of the times and in which Charles II was restored to the throne was not such as to inspire opposition.

While Richard was never considered a great man, still he has been admired for the dignity with which he bore himself after the Restoration. He cared not a straw for political or general of a retiring disposition.

There was, however, a profound sense of humor underlying his nature. His conduct in the market in which he had come to him during his short rule, was not that of a common place character. When obliged to take a horse, he carried those documents with him in a large hair-covered trunk, of which he requested his servants to take great care. When asked why he was so careful of the old trunk he replied that it contained nothing less than "the lives and fortunes of all the good people of England." This trunk was a standing joke among his friends. It related that two neighbors, being introduced to his house, were very hospitably entertained on the occasion of a gathering at his residence. When the company "had become merry," Richard arose, took a candle and asked all his guests to follow him. With bottles and glasses in hand the party proceeded to the garret, where, somewhat to the surprise of the two new guests, who were unaware of the history of the trunk, the former Protector pulled out the hairy trunk from a corner, seated himself upon it and proposed a toast, "Prosperity to Old England." Each man in succession seated himself upon the trunk and drank the toast. One of the new guests, coming last, proceeded to the performance, when Cromwell called out to him: "Now, sit light, for you have the lives and fortunes of all the good people of England under you." Later, by way of explanation, he took out some of the addresses and read them to the assembled company, amid roars of laughter.

Republic was launched on July 13, 1898, but first was called the Republican. The initial issue was of four pages, about twelve inches in size, but was quite large enough to chronicle the news of the rough little frontier village in which it was published. The paper has always fought for truth and right and for this reason has added to its prestige and power with every year of its existence.
